Sunday meeting is a simple meeting held in the Pine Grove, written by campers and counselors reflecting a particular theme through poetry, prose and quotations from our community and others. In addition, music is an important part of the meeting with singing and musical interludes. Topics might include the importance of respecting nature, friendship, and community living. They are intended to encourage us to reflect on our natural environment, our individual goals and our contribution to the camp and broader community. Following the Sunday Meeting, lodge meetings are held and often tie into the theme of the meeting.
